THE BROTHERS.

BY LOUISA M. ALCOTT.

On the seventh night, Dr. Franck suggested that it would be well for some, besides the general watchman of the ward, to be with the captain, as it might be his last. Although the greater part of the two preceding nights had been spent there, of course I offered to remain,—for there is a strange fascination in these scenes, which renders one careless of fatigue and unconscious of fear until the crisis is passed.

"Give him water as long as he can drink, and if he drops into a natural sleep, it may save him. I'll look in at midnight, when some change will probably take place. Nothing but sleep or a miracle will keep him now. Good night."

Away went the Doctor; and, devouring a whole mouthful of gapes, I lowered the lamp, wet the captain's head, and sat down on a hard stool to begin my watch. The captain lay with his hot, haggard face turned towards me, filling the air with his poisonous breath, and feebly muttering, with lips and tongue so parched that the sanest speech would have been difficult to understand. Robert was stretched on his bed in the inner room, the door of which stood ajar, that a fresh draught from his open window might carry the fever-fumes away through mine. I could just see a long, dark figure, with the lighter outline of a face, and, having little else to do just then, I fell to thinking of this curious contraband, who evidently prized his freedom highly, yet seemed in no haste to enjoy it. Doctor Franck had offered to send him on to safer quarters, but he said, "No, thank yer, sir, not yet," and then had gone away to fall into one of those black moods of his, which began to disturb me, because I had no power to lighten them. As I sat listening to the clocks from the steeples all about us, I amused myself planning Robert's future, as I often did my own, and had dealt out to him a generous hand of trumps wherewith to play this game of life which hitherto had gone so cruelly against him, when a harsh, choked voice called,—

"Lucy!"

It was the captain, and some new terror seemed to have gifted him with momentary strength.

"Yes, here's Lucy," I answered, hoping that by following the fancy I might quiet him,—for his face was damp with the clammy moisture, and his frame shaken with the nervous tremor that so often precedes death. His dull eye fixed upon me, dilating with a bewildered look of incredulity and wrath, till he broke out fiercely,—

"That's a lie! she's dead,—and so's Bob, damn him!"

Finding speech a failure, I began to sing the quiet tune that had often soothed delirium like this; but hardly had the line, passed my lips, when he clutched me by the wrist, whispering like one in mortal fear:

"See gentle patience smile on pain."

"Hush! she used to sing that way to Bob, but she never would to me. I swore I'd whip the Devil out of her, and I did; but you know before she cut her throat she said she'd haunt me, and there she is!"

He pointed behind me with an aspect of such pale dismay, that I involuntarily glanced over my shoulder and started as if I had seen a veritable ghost; for, peering from the gloom of that inner room, I saw a shadowy face, with dark hair all about it, and a glimpse of scarlet at the throat. An instant showed me that it was only Robert leaning from his bed's foot, wrapped in a gray army-blanket, with his red shirt just visible above it, and his long hair disordered by sleep. But what a strange expression was on his face! The unmarred side was toward me, fixed and motionless as when I first observed it,—less absorbed now, but more intent. His eye glittered, his lips were apart like one who listened with every sense, and his whole aspect reminded me of a hound to which some wind had brought the scent of unsuspected prey.

"Do you know him, Robert? Does he mean you?"

"Lord, no, ma'am; they all own half a dozen Bobs; but hearin' my name woke me, that's all."

He spoke naturally, and lay down again, while I returned to my charge, thinking that this paroxysm was probably his last. But by another hour I perceived a hopeful change, for the tremor had subsided, the cold dew was gone, his breathing was more regular, and Sleep, the healer, had descended to save or take him gently away. Doctor Franck looked in at midnight, bade me keep all cool and quiet, and not fail to administer a certain draught as soon as the captain woke. Very much relieved, I laid my head on my arms, uncomfortably folded up the little table, and fancied I was about to perform one of the feats which practice renders possible—"sleeping with one eye open," as we say; a half-and-half doze; for all senses sleep but that of hearing; the faintest murmur, sigh, or motion will break it, and give one back one's wits much brightened by the brief permission to "stand at ease." On this night the experiment was a failure, for previous vigils, confinement, and much care had rendered naps a dangerous indulgence. Having roused half a dozen times in an hour to find all quiet, I dropped my heavy head on my arms, and, drowsily resolving to look up again in fifteen minutes, fell fast asleep.

The striking of a deep-voiced clock woke me with a start. "That is one," thought I, but, to my dismay, two more strokes followed; and in remorseful haste I sprang up to see what harm my long oblivion had done. A strong hand put me back into my seat, and held me there. It was Robert. The instant my eye met his my heart began to beat, and all along my nerves tingled that electric flash which foretells a danger that we cannot see. He was very pale, his mouth grim, and both eyes full of sombre fire,—for even the wounded one was open now, all the more sinister for the deep scar above and below. But his touch was steady, his voice quiet, as he said,—

"Sit still, Ma'am; I won't hurt yer, nor even scare yer, if I can help it, but yer waked too soon."

"Let me go—Robert, the captain is stirring,—I must give him something."

"No, Ma'am, yer can't stir an inch. Look here!"

Holding me with one hand, with the other he took np the glass in which I had left the draught, and showed me it was empty.

"Has he taken it?" I asked, more and more bewildered.

"I flung it out o' winder, Ma'am; he'll have to do without."

"But why, Robert? why did you do it?"

"Because I hate him!"

SHOCKING RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The Wheeling Intelligencer says: "On Saturday morning a most terrible accident occurred at Ritchietown, near the house of Mr. J. B. Ford, which resulted in the instant death of Mrs. Crane, wife of the Auditor of West Virginia. The engineer of the express for the east, as the train neared the point indicated, observed a lady walking in close proximity to the track and called to her to get out of the way. There are two or three tracks or railings near the point, and it is supposed she became confused and alarmed, and instead of getting out of the way, fell with her neck upon the main track. The driving wheels of the engine passed directly over her neck, completely severing the head from the body."

LORD LYNDHURST.—By the steamer Hibernia we learn of the death of the venerable Lord Lyndhurst, at the age of ninety-one years. A full sketch of his history would include a history of British politics for more than half a century, for we know of no one who has been more prominent as a member of the House of Peers during that period. He was the son of the artist Copley, and was born at Boston, in this country, in 1772. While almost an infant he went to England with his mother and sisters, and was educated at Cambridge.

THE Governors of Massachusetts, Maine, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Illinois and Wisconsin, have issued proclamations recommending that Thursday, November 25th, be observed as a day of Thanksgiving. The same day has been recommended by the President.

THE largest locomotive in the United States, if not the largest in the world, has just been built for the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company. It has twelve driving wheels, and weighs more than one hundred thousand pounds.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Correspondence of the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, October 24.

I learn from persons who yesterday left the front, that everything is progressing very favorably. The Morning Chronicle of this city has lately circulated some very curious stories about Meade and Rosecrans; among others, one that Meade informed the President that he could not make a forward movement for at least three weeks, on account of the condition of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, which has been utterly destroyed. Of the contrary, we learn that the railroad is not so badly damaged, and that the road is already nearly repaired to the Rappahannock, and that a bridge is already constructed, which can be thrown across that river in five days. And, last of all, the report of Meade making any such statement is authoritatively contradicted. Whether Meade has any intention of occupying the old ground at the Rapidan is not known, and a variety of opinions exist as to the course about to be pursued in the next movement. One thing is certain, the railroad can be sufficiently repaired the present week to allow him to occupy Culpepper if he so designed. The army is in the very best of spirits, and much confidence in Meade is not only expressed by the soldiers, but by every one, high and low, about this city.

The whereabouts of Lee's army is unknown, but it is generally believed that at least one corps has gone to Lynchburgh, in order to check Burnside, and that after doing this, it can again regain Lee's army before the railroad is sufficiently repaired for Meade to make a forward movement. From indications this game will be blocked.

The sutlers are all about the city, having been ordered here during the late campaign. There is no indication that they will soon be allowed to rejoin the army, and this is a good omen, showing that the army is not going to be idle at present.

Reconnoisances were yesterday made a considerable distance beyond the Rappahannock, without discovering any large body of Lee's men. To-day they are being pushed still further.

The Secretary of War has returned from his trip west, and looks extremely well.

Major Gen. Heintzleman has nearly recovered, and it is understood that he will immediately resume the discharge of the duties of the command of the defenses of this city. He has not been assigned to any other command.

Col. Sam'l McKelvy has, after a brief leave of absence, again assumed command of Camp Convalescent.

I understand from reliable authority that John Pichl, who forged the name of Capt. Tompkins to receipts for horses, and thereby raised over $40,000 from the Citizens Bank of Baltimore, has been arrested in Canada, and will immediately be brought to this city for trial.

Considerable canvassing has commenced for the next Speaker. The two most prominent ones spoken of, are Washburn and Colfax. The latter appears to have the inside track.

The Russian fleet which has had such an ovation paid to them in New York, is expected to arrive here on Tuesday. Great preparations and expensive arrangements for the reception is making at the Navy Yard, and the citizens are no less active.

On the 12th of November, on dit, the long expected wedding is at last to come off, viz: Senator Sprague and Miss Kate Chase. Several old maids, which is a very common thing to meet in this city—say that they have seen the inside of Chase's house, and that the preparations making are far ahead of anything lately seen. They say that she will have no occasion to want for anything, even for a "thousand and one years," as Governor Sprague has an abundance of "the root of all evil."

The people here are so fond of amusements, that filling three or four large Theatres during the week will not answer, so a Grand Opera (oratorio they call it) is to be performed at the Washington Theatre, for the benefit of Carl Anschutz, on Sunday evening. Maggie Mitchell is still playing at Ford's, and the two Florences, at Grover's The latter, though an immense building, is crowded night after night. Miss Suse Denin commences her engagement at Grover's, on Monday evening.

C.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26, 1863.

The city is full of strangers from all parts of the country. Hotels are doing a brisk business, and are preparing for a general rush at the approaching opening of Congress. Willards' magnificent Hotel is being re-fitted and re-painted in anticipation of the gay season. Private families are arranging for a general condensation of the family circle into the smallest possible space, so as to be able to obey the scriptural injunction to "take in" the stranger; for here some of the "first families" will condescend to accommodate a few respectable gentlemen, if they bring "the best of reference," which means plenty of cash.

The dome of the new Capitol is fast approaching completion. It now gives that magnificent building, when viewed at a distance, its architectural beauty. The North wing of the Treasury building, is also progressing with remarkable activity, but it cannot be completed until the old State Department building is removed, which will not be done this season. Many new and elegant private buildings are in progress of construction. Jay Cooke & Co. are building an elegant marble front Banking house, on Fifteenth street, opposite the Treasury Department. Altogether, Washington, in a local aspect, is prosperous beyond any former time in its history. This is partly owing to the influx of Yankee enterprise and capital, and especially to the confidence that is felt in the safety of the place, and the permanency of the Republic.

The Crops.

WASHINGTON CITY, October 26.

The following is a summary statement of the amount of the crops of 1862 and 1863, both summer and fall, of the loyal States, as returned to and estimated by the Agricultural Department, and furnished to the press generally by the Commissioners of Agriculture, in advance of his monthly report for September:

	Bushels.
Wheat crop of 1863, - -	191,068,239
Domestic consumption, - -	149,307,192
Leaving for export, - -	41,761,047
Corn crop for 1863, - - -	449,163,894
Domestic consumption, - -	575,024,132
Leaving a deficiency of - -	125,860,238

—which must be provided for by greater economy in feeding and a greater proportional consumption of wheat.

The number of stock hogs is about the same as in 1862, and about five per cent. below a general average in condition. These were early turned on the frosted corn.

The buckwheat crop is not as much injured as was generally supposed, because most of it is produced in the States of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, where the frosts of August 30 and September 18 did not injure the crops materially.

The tobacco crop of 1863 is larger than that of last year by nearly fifty millions of pounds, although the frosts in the Western States were very injurious to it. But about one-half of the crop there had been gathered before the frost of September 18, and seventy-five per cent. more ground had been planted than in 1862.

The hay crop of 1862 is estimated at 21,603,645 tons, that of 1863 at 19,980,482 tons—a decrease of 1,623,163 tons. Its quality is good.

The meteorological division of the report is much larger than usual, giving a full description of the frosts of August 30 and September 18.

The monthly report for September is much the best yet issued, and will soon be distributed.

SEEKING PASTURE.—Over fifty thousand head of sheep have been sent, recently, from Harrison and Jefferson counties, Ohio, to be pastured, for the season, on the great prairies of Illinois and Iowa. The pasture in the counties named is said to be exhausted.

A POET was walking with M. de Talleyrand in the street, and at the same time reciting some of his own verses. Talleyrand, perceiving at a short distance a man yawning, pointed him out to his friend, saying, "Not so loud, he hears you."

THE telegraph line from Nashville to Chattanooga has been closed to newspaper reports.

GOV. MORTON has issued an eloquent appeal to the people of Indiana to provide for the wants of soldiers' family during the coming winter.

WM. MCCOY, a well known resident of Wheeling, died in Baltimore, on Saturday last. He spent the last two years of his life traveling in California, China and Japan.

GOVERNOR CURTIN is fast recovering his wonted vigor after a short but serious prostration from his official labors. He will soon address himself with energy to the military and other interests of the State.

ROBBERY.—The banking office of Benson & West, Waterford, Erie county, was entered on the night of the 8th inst., and $25,000 stolen in notes, bank bills, drafts, checks, etc. No clue has been obtained to the burglars.

THE OHIO LEGISLATURE.—The next Legislature of Ohio will stand as follows: Senate, twenty-nine Unionists to five opposition; House, eighty Unionists to seventeen opposition; Union majority on joint ballot, eighty-seven.

IT is proposed, at the next session of Congress, to reduce the price for exemption of conscripts to $100, and to advance the pay of soldiers to $60 per month. It is thought that these measures will have a most happy effect in aiding a vigorous prosecution of the war.

THE small currency is now ready for distribution, and is given to all who apply for it at the Treasury Department. It is put up in small packages of forty 25's and forty 50's, no smaller denominations being ready. There is no demand for it outside of the customary business at the Department in making change.

NEVER since the organization of the navy has so many of our war vessels been lying in New York harbor. There are now no less than sixty-two vessels, carrying four hundred and forty guns; a larger force than that of the entire United States Navy before the outbreak of the rebellion. These, with the Russian, French and English war vessels, give the harbor a very belligerent appearance.

THE stagnation of business in the bookselling trade has been so protracted in Great Britain that serious consequences have followed. There have been numerous failures among the London and country publishers, commencing first among the retailers and then extending to the wholesale trade, till the matter has become alarming, the failures in many cases being of houses that had been long established.

NEWS FROM MEXICO has been received, to the effect that Gen. FOREY, before his departure from the City of Mexico, issued some high-handed orders against the unknown assassins of a French Zouave, threatening to burn down the town of Tlaxpan, where the man was murdered, if the act was not otherwise expiated. The new campaign against JUAREZ was about to begin, with small chances of success on the part of the French.

A LOCOMOTIVE engine will carry 200 tons at a cost of fuel scarcely exceeding the cost of corn and hay which a pack mule consumed, before the locomotive was invented, in conveying a load of three hundred weight an equal distance. The same difference of cost would be saved the community by using steam-engines upon our city railroads instead of horses, and every saving of cost is so much capital set free to employ more labor, and add to the general accumulation of wealth.

THERE are thirty-five hospitals in Nashville, Tennessee. A late letter from that city says: "A large part of the wealthy population of this aristocratic city were in in BRAGG's army, under BRECKENRIDGE and CHEATHAM, at the late battle, and great numbers have been killed. Out of sixteen hundred under BRECKENRIDGE thirteen hundred were killed and wounded! It is said that three-fourths of the ladies of the Episcopal church are in mourning for their dead. Everything looks warlike here. From seventy-five to one hundred cars go out every morning with cannon, troops or supplies."

THE CHATEAU OF MIRAMAR, where the Archduke MAXIMILIAN resides, is situated about three miles from Trieste, on a promontory running out into the sea. The prince has there formed magnificent collections of objects of natural history, which he either procured during his different voyages or which have been brought or sent to him by officers of the Austrian Navy. The prince is intimately acquainted with the Spanish, and, like his brother the Emperor of Austria, speaks seven languages. The park of Miramar is the principal promenade of Trieste, and on Sundays and fete days they flock thither in crowds. The apartments, the picture galleries, and the collections of natural history are kindly thrown open to visitors.

THE War Department has at length made a sensible modification of the President's Proclamation suspending the habeas corpus act, and hereafter the civil courts will be allowed to take cognizance as heretofore of all cases for the discharge of minors improperly enlisted, and illegally detained by the military authorities. This announcement is made by the Adjutant General in a dispatch to Mr. SIMON STERN, a lawyer of New York, in relation to the case of a minor in which he was interested. This decision will afford a sensible relief to the community and legal profession, and relieves from the President's Proclamation a feature that has rendered it difficult, if not impossible to obtain redress for those who cannot legally be detained in the army.

THE SOUTHERN account of LEE's campaign admits a reverse at Bristow Station, where three of their generals, COOK, POSEY and KIRKLAND, were wounded, and their loss in two brigades amounted to one thousand one hundred and twenty-six killed and wounded. They figure up their total loss in the campaign, in killed and wounded alone, at one thousand five hundred. Their loss in prisoners is not given. They claim to have captured two thousand prisoners. They say that MEADE will not be able to advance again under two months, so completely have they destroyed the railroad. This statement is probably not far from the fact, for we see army correspondents say that the road is so much injured that it is believed a new one could be sooner constructed than the old one could be repaired. There is also a rumor of a change of base for our army operations. There certainly would be an advantage in having water communication for the supply of our army, rather than a long line of railroad. The first could never be cut off, and would therefore relieve the commander from the necessity of guarding his rear, which weakens his force just in proportion to the length of the line to be guarded.

Freshly Instructed Congressman.

Our system of electing members of the Lower House of Congress fourteen months before they take their seats does not bring them so fresh from the ranks of the people as our Democratic system of government seems to require. We, therefore, call the notice of a few members of the Pennsylvania Delegation to the fact that fresh instructions have been voted them, on the 13th instant that it may be well for them to note. See what the constituents of JOHN L. DAWSON, who will probably claim to be the leading member of the so-called Democratic Delegation from this State, says: Two hundred and nineteen of a majority of the voters of that District declare that they want a hearty and vigorous prosecution of this war, and no sympathysing with JEFF. DAVIS. Do you hear that, JOHN L. DAWSON. Five hundred and sixty of a majority of J. B. LAZEAR's constituents call upon him to turn from the errors of his ways and give a hearty and vigorous support to President LINCOLN, in his effort to suppress treason at the South and copperheadism at the North.

Seven hundred and twenty-three of a majority of the constituents of ALEXANDER HAMILTON CRAWFORTH's declare that he is no representative of theirs unless he very materially changes his course when Congress meets.

Twelve hundred and thirty-six of a majority of the voters of the district along the Juniata river, intimate to M'CALLISTER that if he represents their views that he must eschew all sympathy with treason and copperheadism and act the part of a good Union man.

We cannot from memory run over the fresh instructions given to the other members of Congress in Eastern Pennsylvania; but doubt not that they are equally emphatic with those in this vicinity. In Ohio these instructions are tenfold more emphatic than with us. The majorities in many of the Congressional districts of that State that send Copperheads to the next Congress are from 3,000 to 5,000 against VALLANDIGHAM. Now, if these professed champions of popular will were honest, they would either change their course or resign, that the votors of the district may choose men who would correctly represent them. What say Messrs. DAWSON, LAZEAR, CROFFORTH, M'CALLISTER & Co. ?—not one of you will resign.

Chattanooga Must be Taken.

The arch-traitor, JEFF. DAVIS, has been to see BRAGG and his army encamped before Chattanooga, and seems still more confirmed than ever, that unless this stronghold in the heart of rebellion can be taken, that all is up with him. When BRAGG was ordered to take it from ROSECRANS, JEFF. was said to have declared that this must be done, if it cost every soldier in the Confederacy. Now, since he has inspected the ground, and consulted with his Generals, he seems still more bent on its re-capture. He declares it to be the very heart of the Confederacy—the pivoted point from which Tennessee and Kentucky can be defended, and Alabama, Georgia, South and North Carolina, and Virginia, can be assailed in their most vital points. Entertaining these views, he declared that the defeat of ROSECRANS would practically end the war. He might have said with still greater truth, that the failure to dislodge GRANT from that stronghold, would end the rebellion.

They have on several occasions tried to dislodge this Union Army and failed. They failed at Chickamauga—they have failed in every effort to out-flank us heretofore, and we have no doubt they will still further fail. The Armies of THOMAS, BURNSIDE, HOOKER, SHERMAN and MCPHERSON, all united under GRANT, are invincible. If BRAGG, as reported, is superceded, and LEE or JEFF. DAVIS himself, takes command, still they cannot defeat and dislodge GRANT. No, no. The days of this rebellion are drawing to a close. Such victories as MEADE and GRANT, and ROSECRANS and GILMORE, have gained in the field, and CURTIN and BROUGH, and STONE in politics, will soon be the death knell to Southern treason and Northern copperheadism. These twin sisters have been monsters in their lives, and in their death they will not be divided. Both will ere long be sunk in infamy so deep that the hand of the resurrection cannot reach them.

The Official Vote.

By the table of official returns, as received at the office of the Secretary of State, which we publish to-day it will be seen that the exact majority for Governor CURTIN in the entire State, is 15,325. The majority for Judge AGNEW is 12,308. The total for the two officers is as follows:

GOVERNOR.		SUPREME JUDGE.
Curtin	269,496	Agnew	267,197
Woodward	254,170	Lowrie	254,889
Total	523,667	Total	522,086

Governor CURTIN's vote is 2,299 greater than Judge AGNEW's, while Judge WOODWARD's vote is 708 less than Judge LOWRIE's. The whole vote for Governor is 30,995 larger than the heaviest vote ever before polled, which was at the Governor's election in 1860.

Projected Monument to Robert Fulton.

There is a project on foot, says the New York Evening Post, for erecting a monument to Robert Fulton in Trinity churchyard. This eminent man, to whom the country and the world owe so much, sleeps in that ancient burial-place without a stone to mark the spot where he was buried. His great enterprise of navigating the Hudson in vessels propelled by steam has proved the germ of a vast system of rapid communication, by sea and land, between city and city, between nation and nation, between continent and continent, which brings into one neighborhood all the regions of the civilized world. His name will always live in the history of useful inventions and discoveries, and yet of all the vast multitudes who enjoy the advantage of the swift and certain means of travel and intercourse introduced by him, there are, probably, few who bear in mind the obligations they are under to the genius and perseverance which removed the application of steam to the purposes of locomotion from the class of speculative possibilities and made it a brilliant certainty. Were it otherwise, the remains of Fulton would not now fill a nameless grave.

An opportunity will now be offered to repair the wrong done by this neglect of the memory of one to whom the country and the age we live in are so largely indebted. A memorial in Trinity churchyard, looking upon Broadway, would remind the thousands who pass there, at almost every hour of the day, of the claim which Fulton has upon their grateful remembrance. No doubt great numbers will gladly seize this occasion to testify their respect for his memory, both individuals and associations, all of whom have in certain respects been benefited, and some of them enriched, by the results of the great enterprise for which he was so scantily rewarded. The great rivers of our country, its lakes and harbors, swarm with steamers, the property of companies which we must suppose would rejoice to co-operate in such a testimonial of honor to the name of Fulton.

THE Louisville Journal, of Thursday last, says: "We are able to state on assurance which we deem entirely trustworthy, that the Government will not authorize the enlistment of negroes in Kentucky. We make this statement, as we are sure every patriot among us will receive it with a profound sense of relief."

A DISTRICT has been discovered in Russia of similar formation to that of the oil-producing region of Pennsylvania, and other parts of America. Col. GOWAN, the Yankee officer who has been raising the Russian fleet at Sebastopol, has obtained a grant of 50,000 acres, upon which he is to carry on his explorations.

A RECENT spirited hunt in Ashtabula County, Ohio, in which eighteen men were engaged on each side, resulted in the slaying of fifteen hundred frisky little fellows on one side and fifteen hundred and one on the other. A close match and a big day's work—but it reflects little credit on the prowess of the hunter. The fellows engaged in such a useless and wholesale slaughter of game, are fairly entitled to be rationed for a time on bread and water at the public expense.

ACCOUNTS from Arkansas indicate that the rebel forces are about to evacuate that State, with an evident desire to concentrate in Texas, under Magruder, to oppose General BANKS. General STEELE cannot follow the retreating rebels from Little Rock, as they have laid the country waste, and there is danger that they may reach MAGRUDER in time to share in any battle that may occur.

THE rebel Lieut.-Gen. D. H. Hill has been removed from his command in the rebel army of the Tennessee. Gen. Polk charges him with the cause of his failure to carry out Bragg's order in the battle of Chickamauga.

Editor of Commercial:

DEAR SIR,—With your permission I wish to say to the readers of your paper that I will send by return mail, to all who wish it (free), a Receipe, with full directions for making and using a simple Vegetable Balm, that will effectually remove, in ten days, Pimples, Blotches, Tan, Freckles, and all Impurities of the Skin, leaving the same soft, clear, smooth and beautiful.

I will also mail free to those having Bald Heads, or Bare Faces, simple directions and information that will enable them to start a full growth of Luxuriant Hair, Whiskers, or a Moustache, in less than thirty days.

All applications answered by return mail without charge. Respectfully yours,

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

South Pittsburgh, Birmingham, East Birmingham and Brownstown.

Citizens of the above places can have the Daily and Evening Commercial left at their residences by leaving their names at the undermentioned places:

South Pittsburgh—Nankter's store.
Birmingham—Mrs. Ramsey's News Depot, Carson street.
East Birmingham and Brownstown—At Leithead's News Depot, Carson street, East Birmingham. GEO. H. LEITHEAD, Carrier.

The gentleman who took an overcoat by mistake from the Editorial Room of the DAILY COMMERCIAL, will please return it.

Personal.—Major General James S. Negley left yesterday afternoon for Washington city.

Pittsburghers Absent.—The following Pittsburghers were registered at the Philadelphia hotels on Sunday:—John Arbuckle, Wm. Hall and two daughters, Robert Jamison, James M. Cooper, James I. Bennett and lady, J. Sutherland.

A Citizen of East Birmingham informs us that Justice Ammon is giving great satisfaction in the discharge of his duties—his last act sending in $82 35, justice's fines. To the magistrates of the county we would warmly recommend him as an example well worthy of imitation.

Arrived Home.—Mr. J. M. Burchfield, the well-known dry goods merchant, on the corner of Fourth and Market streets, has just returned from the Eastern cities, where he purchased one of the choicest and largest assortments of seasonable and fashionable dry goods ever brought to the city. Our lady readers should call at Mr. Burchfield's, and examine his stock, which will be found to be one of the most complete in the city.

Railroad Explosion.—On Friday night, a locomotive attached to a freight train, on the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago railroad, exploded near Crestline. Mr. Alfred Dumm, the engineer, was terribly scalded by the explosion, and had one leg broken in three places, and he is now lying at Crestline in a very precarious situation. We did not learn any particulars of the occurrence. Mr. Dumm is married, and resides in Sewickley.

Fine Jewelry.—Our friend, J. M. Roberts, Fifth street, near Market, has in store one of the largest, most select, and at the same time one of the rarest stocks of watches and jewelry in the city. Particularly in the watch department does Mr. Roberts excel, and to his selection in this line we would invite attention. Mr. Roberts is not only one of our most skilful watch manufacturers, but is likewise a jeweller of most exquisite taste. Call and examine his stock.

McClelland, 54 Fifth street, Masonic Hall, is doing a rushing business in the boot and shoe line. An additional attraction at the present time is the fact that Pratt is holding his book auction. For bargains call at McClelland's.

Lieut. Col. S. McKelvey.—The correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer thus refers to a rumor relative to our fellow-citizen, Col. Samuel McKelvey:—A statement has been published that Lieut. Col. Joseph Dickinson, late of Gen. Hooker's staff, had relieved Lieut. Col. Samuel McKelvey in command of the Convalescent Camps. This is incorrect, Lieut. Col. McKelvey still being in command. The report probably originated from the fact that Lieut. Col. Dickinson was ordered to inspect the Convalescent Camp, and remained there for some time performing his duties. The camp now contains seven thousand men, a smaller number than for some time past.

Railroad Accident.—According to the Steubenville Union a rather serious accident occurred, Saturday, on the Steubenville and Indiana Railroad. Owing, it is supposed, to something giving way about the engine of the Eastern bound train, it was precipitated down an embankment, two miles this side of Alexandria Station, in which it dragged the tender, baggage and two express cars with it. The engineer, Mr. B. McMullen, was badly scalded; his case is doubtful. Mr. Albert Moore, brakeman, was badly injured, and will not recover. No other casualties occurred; no passenger was injured.

Wounded Pennsylvanians in the Ninth Corps.

Police Intelligence.

BEFORE ALDERMAN TAYLOR.—Patrick Kiernan was arrested on oath of Michael Barrett, charging him with assault and battery. In default of bail Patrick was sent to jail to meditate upon the mutability of human affairs.

BEFORE ALDERMAN JONES.—William Mullivey was arrested upon oath of Mimby List, charging him with aggravated assault and battery, by striking him in the head divers and sundry times with large lumps of coal, to his serious injury. Williams' friends stepped forward and entered bail for his appearance in the penal sum of $300.

LARCENY OF GOVERNMENT CLOTHING.—The Mayor's police, yesterday, arrested one Martin Halleyrand, charged with the larceny of a number of shirts from the Government Depot, No. 95 Water street. For some time a large quantity of clothing has suddenly disappeared from the Government storehouse, and suspicion attaching to Halleyrand, he was arrested and committed accordingly.

BEFORE ALDERMAN DONALDSON.—A series of cross suits came off last night before Alderman Donaldson, the parties on one side being Mathew Owen, Mrs. Eliza Cool and Jenny Cool, her daughter, and on the other part John Simpson and Anna Eliza, his daughter. Mrs. Cool brought suit against the Simpsons for abusive language, charging her with having stolen goods in her possession, keeping a bad house, &c. John Simpson sued Mathew Owen for using threatening language towards him, he having demanded what he (Simpson) meant by his language in regard to his sister (Mrs. Cool). Anna Eliza brought suit against Mrs. Cool and her daughter for assault and battery. The parties were represented by Mr. Moreland for the Cools and Owen, and Mr. Duffy for the Simpsons. After mature reflection, the Alderman came to the conclusion that Mrs. C. and her daughter and Mr. O. had been guilty of nothing that would render it necessary to hold them amenable to the law, but that the Simpson party had acted badly. He therefore discharged the former, and fined the latter the costs upon promising to act more discretly in the future.

Public Amusements.

THEATRICAL.—At the Theatre to-night, the favorite Ettie Henderson appears in two great characters, either of which cannot fail to interest the public. In her line of characters, Ettie stands at the head of her profession, and we are pleased to know that her engagement is a great success.

DR. PAIGE'S LECTURES.—This eminent physician and lecturer, will give another free lecture at Concert Hall this evening. Our citizens could not better pass an evening than in attendance on the Doctor's letures.

THE POLYORAMA.—The Polyorama of the War will be exhibited again to-night. This simple announcement is sufficient to clowd Masonic Hall.

DAN RICE'S GREAT SHOW.—This monster exhibition will open this evening in the Red Lion lot, giving two exhibitions each day for the balance of the week. It is pronounced by the press to be the most novel and unique, as well as the largest establishment in America, comprising the most wonderful collection of trained animals ever brought together. The most prominent among them is the beautiful and wonderful trained blind talking horse, Excelsior, Jr. There is also a large collection of trained dogs, ponies, monkeys, &c., together with the original comic mules. Dan Rice will appear at each performance, and give some of his humorous lectures, interspersed with pungent remarks upon the war and the times, which cannot fail to excite the mirth of those who delight in genuine, hearty fun. In addition, there is a large number of gymnasts, acrobats, athletes, &c.

Legal Intelligence.

The prosecutor is a tailor by occupation, and has a store in the First Ward, Allegheny, where he does business. On the night of October 18th his store was entered and about $40 worth of goods carried off. Some time afterwards a portion of the goods were found in the prisoner's possession, whereupon he was arrested and bound over for his appearance at Court.

John Clouse, of Allegheny, was convicted of selling liquor on Sunday, and a motion for a new trial was made.

Wayside Observations.

With what ease might mankind pass through this world, if only they could wink at, or shut their eyes against the many incongruities which meet them at almost every step. But to do this seems impossible, for, in despite of all our philosophy, annoyances will loom up, like spectral visitations, to disturb the equanimity of our temperament. We have been led to this conclusion after several hours' perambulation through our city, and having our cogitations interrupted by our running afoul of several things, which, bringing us to a quick halt, caused us to view them as intolerable and unjustifiable, though doubtless the persons tolerating and sustaining the nuisances may think them all right. We stopped at about forty places at least where the vault grates, on the pavements, are broken in such a manner that the foot of a pedestrian is likely to be caught between the bars; and, if not watchful, by a step or fall forward of the person, the ankle is in danger of being broken. This, of course, alarmed our nervous sensibilities, and we felt like crying out, at the top of our voice, beware of the man traps! However, we did not, but passing along had our attention called to quite a number of pavements so broken up and disordered, that for comfort and pleasure in walking, we thought corduroy sidewalks would answer about as well. Now, these are but two grievances we feel like speaking about at present. However, we desire, before dismissing the subject, to respectfully suggest to every citizen knowing himself or herself blameable in maintaining such dangerous nuisances as we have cited, that they at once remedy the evil; and should it be found that they lack the will to do what is just and proper in the premises, that then the officers, the Street Commissioners, should see that the laws made and provided for such cases are rigidly enforced. Prompt attention to these matters may possibly save some individual from a severe accident, and some property holder from a bill of damages.

GETTYSBURG WOUNDED AT PHILADELPHIA.—Yesterday, says Saturday's Philadelphia Press, a very interesting scene took place at the Soldiers' Reading Room. Since the re-opening of the room, the ladies in charge have been treating the inmates of the various hospitals, who were able to spend a few hours with them, to ice-cream, and cake, and dinner, where it was desired. Within a week, seventeen hundred wounded soldiers have partaken of their hospitality. Yesterday about two hundred and fifty were gathered into their rooms, the lame, and blind, and maimed. It was a sorrowful sight, to see so many stalwart men crippled for life. One could not but remark how large a proportion went upon crutches. At one time twenty-four soldiers sat around the dining-table, each with only one leg; and all these were our Gettysburg boys—these were the brave shields that stood between the rebel invaders and our fair city. About one o'clock Rev. Dr. Newton addressed them for ten minutes or so. He spoke good stirring words of thanks and praise to the men who had saved us by shedding their blood, and then all joined in singing the doxology; and then he lifted up his hands blessingwise and said: "God bless you, soldiers of Gettysburg!" I saw one rough old six-footer furtively draw his sleeve across his eyes; there were tears there; surely they had watered his heart, and he was blessed. After this the ice-cream and cake were served. The ladies, with their dainty caps and aprons, tripping hither and thither among the blue-coats, the faces of the boys shining cheerily as they passed the saucer, and the joke made a picture that did one's heart good.

THE Lake of Klœnthal, in Switzerland, has lately attracted a great number of persons. When the Russian army under Suwarrow effected its celebrated retreat by the Pragel and Klœnthal at the end of September, 1799, a large iron chest containing the money of the army is said to have fallen into the lake near Rustelerkorf. A company has been formed at Glaris to search for this treasure, believed, however, by many to be imaginary. Recently two divers from the Lake of Constance, provided with the necessary apparatus, descended into the water in the presence of an immense concourse of persons, who awaited with impatience to see them reappear with the treasure. After remaining for a considerable time under water the divers came up, bringing with them—an old iron stove covered with mud. On the following day another attempt took place, but without any appearance of the Russian strong box, which, if it ever did fall into the lake, is likely to remain there under the stones and mud collected over it during the last sixty-four years. The probability appears to be that the Glaris company will have their expenses for their pains.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

Death of Col. Dare—Musical Affairs—The Sanitary Commission—The Sons of Temperance—Bounties to our Volunteers—The Ladies' Northwestern Fair—Visit from the Governor—The Presbyterian Synod—Gilmore and Dahlgren again.

Special Correspondence of the Commercial.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26, 1863.

Col. Dare, who went out in command of the Philadelphia City Guards, One Hundred and Twenty-third regiment, three-months' men, died yesterday of congestion of the lungs, superinduced by exposure in his brief campaign. He will be remembered as having done valuable service at Perryville, on the line of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad, in the days of fanaticism at Baltimore. He afterwards joined Patterson's division, and, together with his regiment, done what little that General thought was necessary in Northern Virginia. He was an efficient officer of the Baltimore road, and as such was favorably known.

The musical and theatre-going people, of whom this city boasts perhaps more than any other of its size, are just now engaged considering the probable success of Vestvali at the New Chestnut. She appears to-night, for the first time, in "Gamea, or the Jewish Mother." She is said to be both handsome and an excellent singer, besides being an actress. The result I cannot foretell. She will have a few good houses, and then the furore will subside. We are noted for that here. Give us all the talent you please in that line on one side of the street, and I will start an exhibition on the opposite side, consisting of views in the Holy Land, or a panorama of the Mississippi river, and take the crowd after a few nights. Blitz, with his dozen canaries, bobby, dancing dinner plates, and a few other trifling oddities, opens every fall regularly, and sees dozens of "sensations" come and go as empty as they came, while he gathers up an occasional house and lot. We are so fond of "innocent amusements," that's why.

It is surprising to read the reports of the United States Sanitary Commission from time to time, and at the same time it is as difficult to realize the vast amount of good which it has done for our soldiers. The amount of money alone, which has been contributed in divers ways to this Institution, or Association, was, according to a recent statement, $103,579 95. Remember, this is entirely distinct from the miscellaneous contributions of useful articles of innumerable kinds.

The annual session of the Grand Division Sons of Temperance of Pennsylvania is expected to commence here, at Franklin Hall, this week, commencing on Wednesday evening next. It is a matter of small importance now to what it was some ten or fifteen years since. Then an announcement of this kind would have drawn together a great concourse of people, but now, I doubt if the assemblage will number two hundred, all told. This I write with the kindest of motives, but the truth of it is manifest.

The amount of money disbursed under the ordinance of June 20, 1863, providing for the payment of bounties to such regiments, parts of regiments, and independent companies as proceeded from Philadelphia to Harrisburg, and were mustered into the service of the State or the United States on or before the first day of July, A. D. 1863, proves to be, by an official statement from the Mayor, the very liberal amount of $81,725. Of this amount, the Grey Reserves had $24,400, and the 20th Regiment Militia, Colonel W. B. Thomas, $20,025.

Three ladies, forming the Executive Committee of the Ladies Northwestern Fair, which begins at Chicago to-morrow, have addressed a communication to our Board of Trade, appealing for a donation. They say, after making certain statements explanatory of their project:

"Appealing to these facts, and to the love for the common cause which is known to characterize your organization, we write to ask you for a donation, which shall illustrate your well known liberality and our necessity.

"Our friends are nobly kind to us in this endeavor. Boston, New York, Rochester, Hartford and Pittsburgh have astonished us with the enthusiasm and generosity of their temper towards our Fair."

It is enough to say that the request of the Chicago ladies will be responded to in no mean spirit. We understand that Pittsburgh responds with five thousand dollars. If this is so, how much more ought we to contribute. A subscription list has been started already. A committee is in daily attendance to receive contributions.

His Excellency, A. G. Curtin, paid us a brief visit Saturday evening and yesterday. I did not get an opportunity to see him, but learned that his health is good, and his labors since the campaign arduous. He had a great deal to attend to after being engaged so long in visiting the different fields of labor previous to election day. The Governor generally keeps very quiet when he comes to town, for the fact of the business is, if it was generally known that he was in the city at any particular period, the time that he would have in which to transact any business of his own would be limited indeed. I have on various occasions witnessed this, and once or twice, when I thought it would be pleasant to just take him by the hand a moment and welcome him, really the crowd quite took away what little modesty I possessed, and I got away as best I might. However, as the evening grows short, I will conclude this paragraph by giving you my ticket for the next Presidential election: For President of the United States—Abraham Lincoln, of Illinois. For Vice President—Andrew G. Curtin, of Pennsylvania.

The Presbyterian Synod (O. S.) is still in session at West Philadelphia. On Saturday last the Session was occupied in the reception of reports from the standing committees on the State of the Church. There was considerable discussion thereon. It is expected that the Synod will to-day introduce some certain resolutions touching the affairs of the country. Up to the hour in which I write nothing has been divulged concerning the matter.

I telegraphed you this morning another rumor concerning Dahlgren's removal from the command of the iron-clads before Charleston. There has been a great deal of talk about this matter, and now that the special of the New York Tribune, at Washington, intimated this morning that it was simply a question of time—or about that expression—I believe it is true that he will soon go by the board. The Tribune man is on very intimate terms with certain men at Washington, I happen to know. A gentleman told me recently that he was perfectly familiar with the fact that there never had been any real cordiality between Gilmore and him, and he knows them both very well.

Additional Foreign News by the Steamer Canada.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Rev. H. W. Beecher delivered his promised lecture on America at Philharmonic Hall, Liverpool, on the 16th, before a densely crowded audience. Fears of a riot were entertained, the Southern sympathizers having placarded the town with bills calculated to inflame the public mind against Mr. Beecher. A large number of secessionists were at the meeting, and did all they could to get up a row, and interrupted Mr. Beecher. They were, however, in a great minority, and, on the whole, Mr. Beecher's reception was enthusiastic. He was frequently interrupted by disgraceful outeries, but showed great firmness and tact, and could not be put down. Mr. B. showed how much England was interested in the triumph of the North. He believed that under the influence of Earl Russell's speech at Blairgowrie, and the seizure of the suspected rams in the Mersey, the hostility of the North towards England would disappear.

He continued that in view of the threatening aspect of affairs throughout the world, kindred nations like England and America, should not be estranged, for united, they would be a match for the world. A vote of thanks to Mr. Beecher was carried with great cheering, but not unmixed with hisses and groans.

Sir Randall Palmer, Attorney General, had been addressing his constituents at considerable length on American affairs. He showed that England could not recognize the South until their independence was fully settled. He contended that England was bound to extend belligerent's rights to the Confederates, and strongly demonstrated the obligation resting on England for continued neutrality.

The Cabinet has postponed its decision in regard to recognizing the Poles as belligerents.

The rebel Col. Lamar had made an address at an agricultural benefit in England in favor of the South.

United States.—In this Court this morning, George Mont was placed on trial for enticing a United States soldier to desert in the 21st District.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

PITTSBURGH GENERAL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY COMMERCIAL,
Wednesday, Octo'er 28.

Business yesterday was not very active. The sales made were only to a fair extent, and prices generally were unchanged. In Groceries prices rule very high, and a further advance has been established in most articles. The weather remains pleasant. Buckwheat Flour is beginning to come in slowly; the rates, however, are so high that none but the wealthier class can reach them. The river at this point rose one inch yesterday, making about three feet six inches water in the channel. There were no departures beyond those running on the slack-water. Among the sales made we note as follows:

HAY—Former prices have been well maintained. At the scales 25 loads were disposed of at $33@35 00 ₱ ton.

STRAW—Sales of 8 loads of Oats Straw at $20@24 00 ₱ ton.

GRAIN—The market was firm, but prices were unsettled, being governed altogether by the amount coming in.

Barley—Was firm, and met with ready sale, 600 bush. being disposed of from wagon at $1 30 ₱ bush. for Spring and $1 50 for Fall.

Wheat—Was enquired for at a shade higher figures. Some 900 bush. sold at $1 25 ₱ bush. for Red, and $1 30 for White.

Corn—The receipts were light. Sales of 3,000 bushel, to arrive, at $1 05.

Oats—Were unchanged, with sales of 700 bush, at 74@75c

Rye—None in market.

CHEESE—There was a steady trade demand for this article, with sales of 110 boxes W. R. at 12@12½c.

BEANS—Prices have declined, with sales of Small White at $2 20 ₱ bush.

FLAXSEED—Former prices have been well maintained, with regular sales at $2 65 ₱ bush. Other descriptions of Seeds were unchanged.

FLOUR.—We have no particular change to notice. The supply being about equal to the demand, buyers have been looking for a decline—but holders refuse to comply, hence we have but few transactions to record, and former prices have been steadily maintained. We note:

Extra—80 bbls. at $5,65@$5,75.

Extra Family—Sales at $6,70@6,75.

The late advance in Railroad freights has cut off a portion of our receipts, a rise in our rivers will soon set that matter right.

GROCERIES—The market was firm with a liberal inquiry for lots for local purposes. The supply on hand is sufficient for all ordinary purposes. Among the sales we note as follows:

Coffee—The advance in the East has been felt here. We note a sale of 65 sacks Rio at 43c to the trade; other small lots were disposed of a shade higher.

Sugar—Firm; sales 11 hhds. Orleans at 13c@14½; 5 hhds. Island at 13@14; Crushed, sales 10 bbls at 15½; A Coffee, sales at 16½@16¾; B Coffee, 16½@16¾.

Molasses—We note sales of old Orleans at 58c; new at 63c; 25 barrels were sold at the latter figure.

Syrups range from 75 to 85c; Lovering's being held at 85c.

Cabbage—Sales 100 head at 6c ₱ head.

PITTSBURGH OIL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY COMMERCIAL,
Wednesday, October 28.

The market continues to rule dull; in fact, buyers manifest no disposition to operate at the present rates demanded by holders. The stock on hand being limited tends to keep up the figures. The sales that were made in August, for future delivery, are beginning to show the evil effects of such transactions, running up prices so as to carry the article fairly out of the market. The other day, a lot of 1,000 bbls was disposed of, at buyers' risk, at a loss of about 8 cents per gallon. During the present week, 2,800 bbls will be disposed of in the same way. The normal rates for Crude were 22c without and 27 with. Small sales are reported at these figures.

The exports were as follows: To New York—Refined, 8. To Philadelphia—Refined, 328; Naptha, 8; Benzole, 153; Crude, 61. To Baltimore—108.

Imports, per A. V. R. R.—Refined, 286; per Allegheny River—1057 barrels.

The Daily Commercial.

COMMERCIAL.

BOSTON BOOT AND SHOE MARKET.—There is less activity in the market and few buyers here except for the New England trade. A fair amount of orders are received to sort up with, and most manufacturers are on goods which have been ordered ahead. The stocks of all kinds are sold up close, and the cost of production is some fifteen per cent. more than it was at the commencement of the season, three months ago. A call for army bootees at New York resulted in the offer of a large quantity at very low rates. Some lots, however, which were offered there, have been on the market for a long time. Bids were opened at Louisville, Oct. 15, for bootees, sewed and pegged, and also pegged boots. Only a small quantity, some thirty thousand pairs, were taken at about the ruling prices paid by the Cincinnati Quartermaster. Massachusetts manufacturers have now very few orders for army goods except from Cincinnati.

The total shipments of boots and shoes by rail and sea, for the past week, have been 12,834 cases.

PHILADELPHIA BOOT AND SHOE MARKET.—The Reporter says: "The general market has been a little more quiet, the demand from the southwest and west having somewhat moderated, while the extreme price of everything in the shape of shoes has operated to restrict sales for the time being. The State has hardly recovered from the recent exciting election. The neighboring States of New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware are buying nearly the usual quantity. The leading features of the market are unchanged. Manufacturers find a full supply of orders, which are likely to keep them engaged all the season. The quantity of army work now being made here or coming from the east is not large. Nearly all of the small contracts for bootees have been filled; some of the larger contracts are yet incomplete. The cavalry boots upon the last awards come in slowly.

PHILADELPHIA HIDE MARKET.—The market presents an active appearance. Dealers continue to supply themselves, although the recent extreme views of importers, have in a measure stopped transactions. The sales from first hands have been about 600 Porto Cabello Hides, to go to New York at prices not given. There has been an importation of about 1300 Caracas Hides, which are held above the views of buyers by the consignees. Green domestic Hides are brisk in request. We quote prime Steer, out of salt, all weights, at 11½@12c; Cows from ½@1c lower. Dry salted Western Hides are offering at 19@22c. Tanners are buying liberally.

PHILADELPHIA METAL MARKET.—There is a firmer feeling in the market, but very little doing in Pig Metal, for the want of stock, most holders being sold up, and we quote Anthracite nominally at $36 for No. 2, and $37@38 for No. 1, with sales at the highest figures, cash; 500 tons No. 2 Glendon also sold at $36,50, and 500 tons Grey Forge at $35 cash. Blooms are very scarce, and fine are held at $120 per ton. Of Scotch Pig there is very little offering, and holders are asking $40 per ton. Manufactured iron continues in good demand at the advance, and the mills, generally, are well off for orders.

NEW YORK PETROLEUM MARKET.—Receipts 2,755 bbls. The market is dull and the sales light, at 31c for crude and 50c for refined, in bond and on the spot. The sales are: 350 bbls refined, on the spot, at 49½c; 1,800 do at 50c; 8,000 gallons, in tin, at 60@61c; 2,000 bbls, for November, buyers' option, at 52½c; 500 do, for December, at 52½c; in calls, 500 bbls, November, at 51c and $1 ₱ gallon; one for 250 bbls November at 50c, and 350 do at 50c and $1 ₱ gallon. Fresh is dull at 48 to 60c, with sales of 250 bbls at 58½c, and 150 do at 57¾c. Residium is quiet, but firm, with sales of 100 bbls at 86 37½—a slight improvement. Naptha is dull and nominal at 25@27c, the latter for refined. In crude we note sales of 1,500 bbls at 31c.

New York Grocery Market.

Coffee—Has been sparingly sought after, at unchanged prices. We quote: Java, at 39@40c; Ceylon, 34@35c; Rio, 31@34c; Laguayra and Maracaibo, 33½@35c; Savanilla, 31@31½c; St. Domingo, 27½@28c ₱ lb.

Sugar continues dull, and prices favored the buyer to the extent of ¼c per lb, in addition to the reduction of ½c on Friday. The rain storm interfered with business very much, and the sales were accordingly very insignificant, comprising about 400 hhds Cuba Muscovado at 11¾@12¼c, and 50 do New Orleans at 12c@13¼c. The stock is 24,000 hhds, 18,500 boxes and 2,300 bags.

Molasses—We notice sales of 110 hhds Cuba Clayed on private terms, and 170 hhds Cuba Muscovado, on private terms—said to be 57c, and 400 bbls New Orleans at 48@58c.

NEW YORK HOP MARKET.—Hops continue in fair request at 20@28c for new, and 18@23c for last year's crop, according to quality, ₱ lb. The Cooperstown (N. Y.) Freeman's Journal says: "Hops of a good quality are held very firmly by the growers—but few of them in this county are willing to take less than 27@30c. Dealers are buying all the prime hops they can get at 20@28c."

ST. LOUIS TOBACCO MARKET.—Market unchanged. The break at both city and State Warehouse consists of 51 hhds. Sales, including 1 hhd sweepings at $2,60; 1 do factory lugs at $7; 13 do planters' lugs at $7,15@10,30; — do common shipping leaf at $11,30@13; 5 do medium do do at $15@17,60; 12 do good and fine do at $18,90@22,25; 2 do medium manufacturing leaf at $22,50 each; 12 do bids rejected and withdrawn.

LOUISVILLE METAL MARKET.—We quote pig iron at $43 for hot blast and $45 for cold blast; stonecoal at 4½c, and 5½c for charcoal. Nails firm at $5 for 10d. Sheet iron selling at 10c for charcoal. Horse-shoes and mule-shoes advanced 2c; the rates for the former are 10@14c, for the latter 12@13c. Horse-shoe nails advanced to 35c. Rod spikes advanced 50c ₱ keg, selling at $7,50@8 per keg. Springs are selling at $17@18, axles at 8c.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.—The sales foot up 22 hhds:—13 hhds, Mason county Lugs and Trash, viz: 8 at $8; 1 at $9; 1 at $0,25; 1 at $13; 2 at $15,50; 9 hhds. Leaf, viz: 1 at $16; 2 at $17,25; 1 at $18; 1 at $19,25; 1 at $20; 1 at $20,50; 2 at $21,75; and 60 cases Ohio Seed Leaf Wrappers and Fillers, ranging from $8 to $32,26.

BALTIMORE COFFEE MARKET.—Transactions in Rio during the last week barely reach 500 bags. No movement in other descriptions reported. The supply of Rio in first hands is now less than 1500 bags, and held firmly at 32@33½c ₱ lb. for common to prime grades.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.—Sales of 75 hhds; 4 at $6a6 75, 4 at $7a7 75, 5 at $8a8 75, 10 at $9a9 75, 4 at $10a10 75, 6 at $11@11 75, 6 at $12@12 75, 4 at $13a13 75, 4 at $14a14 75, 5 at $15a15 75, 5 at $16a16 75, 5 at $17a17 75, 3 at $18@18 75, 6 at $19@19 75, 1 at $20, 1 at $21 75.

TOBACCO IN TENNESSEE.—Heretofore the largest crop of tobacco ever raised in Ray county, Tennessee, was 1,000,000 pounds. This year it will reach 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 pounds. It has not been injured by the frost.

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET.—Cotton has been inactive and depressed to-day, Middlings 84@85c ₱ lb. Sales and re-sales since our last, 300 bales.

SEVERAL entire regiments in the Army of the Potomac have signified their intention to the Government to re-enlist for the war.

IT IS said that the new fractional currency will probably be suppressed as a failure, both as regards paper and engraving.

THE Boston coal dealers voted, a day or two since, to raise the price to $12 a ton. A large quantity of coal from Nova Scotia is arriving there, and many are buying it at $7 per ton.

SECRETARY STANTON, on going West, was in a hurry. He had special trains, and made the time from Cleveland to Louisville, a distance of 387 miles, in eleven hours.

RICHMOND papers of the 21st instant, admit the defeat of Gen. Lee at Bristoe Station by Gen. Warren, and say that their loss was about one thousand in killed and wounded. Rebel Gens. Cook, Posey and Kirkland were among their wounded.

THE life insurance standard of weight for a healthy man is one hundred and forty pounds for five and a half feet of height; and for every inch above or below this stature, to add to or abstract five pounds.

THE Russian regular army consists at present of 31,856 officers and 858,997 privates, and the irregular army of 4,818 officers and 302,961 privates—making a total of 36,614 officers and 1,861,958 privates.

IT IS an evil thing needlessly to cause a human being pain, but it is a fearful thing to inflict it on a creature that cannot speak, for it must be that there is always somewhere a tongue to tell, a mysterious witness to bear testimony.

MEDICAL.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED

HEAR THE WITNESSES.

WORTHLESS and pernicious articles are so often bolstered up in the advertising columns of the press by fabricated letters that the proprietors of

HOSTETTER'S BITTTERS

Rarely give quotations from their business correspondence, lest the GENUINE OPINIONS of those who use and appreciate a GENUINE ARTICLE, should be confounded by the unthinking with the FULSOME RIGMAROLE put into the mouths of MEN OF STRAW by unscrupulous empirics and charlatans, whose double object is to SELL both their trash and the PUBLIC.

Believing, however, that FACTS IMPORTANT TO THE HEALTH AND COMFORT OF THE PUBLIC, and which can be VERIFIED AT ANY MOMENT by addressing the parties who vouch for them, ought not to be hid under a bushel, the undersigned publish below a few communications of recent date, to which they invite the attention of the people, and at the same time ESPECIALLY REQUEST all readers who may feel interested in the subject to ADDRESS THE INDIVIDUALS THEMSELVES, and ascertain the correctness of the particulars.

It may be thought, perhaps, that a preparation like HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, which has long been a STANDARD TONIC throughout the WESTERN HEMISPHERE, and is rapidly becoming a staple of trade at the antipopes, speaks for itself in stronger tones than private eulogium can speak for it. This is true; but the phases of disease are almost innumerable, and every day new instances of the success of the Bitters, either as a PREVENTIVE or a CURE, come to the knowledge of the proprietors through the mails. Some of these are of immediate interest to thousands placed in precisely the same circumstances as the parties who write, and have been PROTECTED and RELIEVED, and therefore it seems almost an act of duty to put them on record.

The immense increase in the sale of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, both at home and abroad, during the past year proves that the world, while it obeys the Scriptural injunction to "try all things," only "HOLDS FAST to that which is GOOD." Spurious preparations, like poisonous fungi, are continually springing up, but their character is soon discovered, and they are "thrust like worthless weeds away." On the other hand, a great antidote that performs all it promises, and even more than its proprietors claimed for it on its introduction, is "not for a day, but for all time."

Every dose administered of a useless or deleterious nostrum helps to disabuse the public mind of the impressions it may have received from the flourish of trumpets with which the deceptious article was announced; while, on the contrary, every bottle sold of a purely valuable medicine secures the permanent custom of the purchaser, and makes him an ADVERTISER OF ITS MERITS among his friends. It is thus that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS have obtained their unparalled popularity. The Press, indeed, has made the GREAT STOMACHIC widely known, but it is the uniformly successful results of PERSONAL EXPERIMENT that have rendered it a HOUSEHOLD MEDICINE through out the length and breadth of the land, and the main reliance of the TRAVELER, the VOYAGER, the MINER and the PIONEER.

During the Summer months, a pure, wholesome tonic, in which are also incorporated the properties of an anti-bilious and mild aperient agent, is especially needed. Such a preparation is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the surest preventative and cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, and nervous debility, ever placed within the reach of the community.

Against the depressing and sickening tendency of heat and miasma, it is a potent safeguard, upon persons of feeble constitution and uncertain health, its renovating effects are most extraordinary.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 28, 1863.
MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Gentlemen:—I have used your Bitters during the last six weeks and feel it due to you and the public to express my hearty approval of their effect upon me. I never wrote a puff for any one, and I abhor everything that savors of quackery. But your Bitters are entirely removed from the level of the mere nostrums of the day, being parent alike to all, and exactly what they profess to be. They are not advertised to cure everything, but they are recommended to assist nature in the alleviation and the ultimate healing of the most common infirmities of the body, and this they will accomplish. I had been unwell for two months, as is usual with me during the Spring. I was bilious, and suffering from indigestion and a general disease of the mucous membraue, and though compelled to keep at work in the discharge of my professional duties, was very weak, of a yellow complexion, had no appetite and was much of the time confined to my bed. When I had been taking your bitters a week my vigor returned, the sallow complexion was all gone, I relished my food, and now I enjoy the duties of mental application, which so recently were so very irksome and burdensome to me, When I used your bitters I felt a change every day. These are facts. All inference must be made by each individual for himself.
Yours respectfully,
W. B. LEE,
Pastor of Green avenue Presbyterian Church.

PROSPECT COTTAGE,
GEORGETOWN, D. C., April 2, 1863.
Messrs. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Gentlemen: It gives me pleasure to add my testimonial to those of others in favor of your excellent preparation. Several years of residence on the banks of a Southern river, and of close application to literary work, had so thoroughly exhausted my nervous system and undermined my health, that I had become a martyr to dyspepsia, and nervous headaches recurring at short intervals, and defying all known remedies in the Materia Medica, I had come to the conclusion that nothing but a total change of residence and pursuits would restore my health, when a friend recommended Hostetter's Bitters. I procured a bottle as an experiment. It required but one bottle to convince me that I had found at last the right combination of remedies. The relief afforded me has been complete. It is now some years since I first tried Hostetter's bitters, and it is but just to say that I have found the preparation all that it claims to be. It is a standard family cordial with us; and even as a stimulant we like it better than anything else; but we use it in all nervous, bilious and dyspeptic cases from fever down to toothache. If what I have now said will lead any dyspeptic or nervous invalid to a sure remedy, I shall have done some good.
I remain, gentlemen, respectfully yours,
E. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
Bureau of Yards and Docks, Dec. 30, 1862.
Messrs. HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa.:
Gentlemen: About four years since, my attention was called to your celebrated Stomach Bitters, I being at the time a perfect martyr to dyspepsia in all of its terrific forms; indeed, I had not known for six years an uninterrupted night's sleep. I commenced the use of your Bitters, taking them according to your directions, except that the dose was reduced to one-half, and found myself much, very much benefitted by the first bottle; the second relieved me entirely; but I have ever since taken a dose in the morning, immediately on rising, finding it act as a tonic and appetizer of the most agreeable character. There is a peculiarity in the effect of your Bitters on me, which it may be well to state. If from any cause, I am the suffering never so acutely with the headache, a dose of your Bitters relieves me in fifteen minutes. In conclusion, I say with all sincerity and truth, I would not be returned to the state of health in which your Bitters found me, and from which they have unquestionably relieved me, for all the money in the world.
I am, with great respect, your obd't servant,
JOHN W. BRONOUGH, Chief Clerk.

NEW CONVALESCENT CAMP,
Near Alexander, Va., May 24, 1863.
Messrs. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Dear Sirs: Will you do me the favor to forward, by express, one-half dozen Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, with bill, for which I will remit you on receipt of the same, as I am unable to procure your medicine here; and if I had a quantity, it could be sold readily, as it is known to be the best preparation in use for diseases having their origin with a diseased stomach. I have used and sold hundreds of preparations, but your Bitters are superior to anything of the kind I am cognizant with. Indeed, no soldier should be without it, should he be ever so robust and healthy; for it is not only a Restorative, but a Preventative, for almost all diseases a soldier is subject to. I have been afflicted with chronic indigestion, and no medicine has ever afforded me the relief yours has; and I trust you will lose no time in sending the Bitters ordered. Yours respectfully,
SAMUEL BYERS, Hospt.
